

My name:

The PAST PERFECT TENSE:

Put the verbs into the correct form of this tense:

She told me his name after he _____ (leave).

He _____ nothing before he saw me (do).

I was sorry that I _____ him (hurt).

After they _____, I sat down and rested (go).

She posted the letter after she _____ it (write).

They dressed after they _____ (wash).

After I _____ the news, I hurried to see him (hear).

They went home after they _____ their lunch (eat).

She said that she _____ the Pyramids (see).

_____ she _____ out when I called at her house (go)?

They told him they _____ him before (not, meet).

He asked why we _____ earlier (not, come).

He wondered why I _____ him (not, visit).

We heard that the fire _____ out (break).

He took the bag after I _____ him twice (ask).

The sun _____ before I was ready to go (set).

What _____ he _____ (drink)?

_____ he _____ the cows before he fed the hens (milk)?

He _____ the pig before he went home (sell).

Mr. Smith _____ the house (not, clean).

She asked why I _____ earlier (not, write).

I was sure that he _____ the man (not, kill).

_____ she _____ him a telegram (send)?

Her mother _____ her with her homework (not, help).

_____ the woman _____ very hard (work)?